THE OLD AND THE NEW

[From the N Y Tribune]

When we said the other day that the Democracy elected the Republican ticket in their Tammany Hall Presidential Convention we argued that the meaning of Mr Vallandigham's 'New Departure' was that he and his friends did not mean to repeat the performance But we added a doubt as to their power to suppress the men like Wade Hampton, who defeated them before Already comes from the South the swift confirmation of our doubt. While Mr Vallandigham and the World are trying to persuade us that the Democracy is a brand new party which has forgotten all the past frankly accepted the results of the war, and made a fresh start in life Mr Jefferson Davis who certainly knows the Southern Democrat better than either of those eminent Northern leaders is industriously proving that the party is just what it always was, pursuing the same objects now that it pursued ten years ago holding fast all the old doctrines and ready for another rebellion whenever the time seems ripe Mr Davis for several years past has courted a becoming obscurity But no sooner does Mr Vallandigham announce his New Departure than the ex chieftain of the Lost Cause emerges from his retirement makes a triumphal journey through the South rouses his old followers, and tells us in very plain language that the New Departure is all a delusion Mr Davis has been so warmly received by the Southern people and heartily applauded that we cannot help attributing to this movement a deep significance It is a warning to the Northern Democrats that they can expect no help from the South unless they fight openly under the old banner "I am not of those who accept the situation," said Mr Davis, at Atlanta "I accept nothing, I have done nothing that I am sorry for I shall not abide by the issue of the war The South is only waiting The cause for which we fought must triumph sooner or later Our policy is to watch the current of events and when our friends at the North are ready to help us we will help them They will give us what we want, and we shall put them in power"

What the Davis party wants is of course well understood The right of any State to break up the Union at pleasure is a cardinal doctrine of their creed "State sovereignty must be restored" exclaims the Rebel ex President or else the republic of America is a failure "The day is not far distant when the sun will shine upon you as a free independent and sovereign State" It is true he does not advise an immediate war he even professes as he did in 1861 earnestly to desire peace All he wanted at the outset of the rebellion was to be let alone, and that is all he wants now It is true that he does not counsel armed resistance but he is kind enough to explain that there never was any organization in the South whose purpose was resistance to the Government and by the time he has made a few more speeches we dare say he will reach the proposition that there never was any war

Mr Davis's rhetoric has no great intrinsic value but the manner in which it is received is equivalent to a notification from the Southern Democracy that the New Departure will not do The party at the South has wedded itself to the extreme principles of State sovereignty, which involve the right of secession, the right to repudiate the recent constitutional amendments, the right to reverse all the results of the war (including of course the abolition of slavery,) and the right to establish an independent confederacy If the Northern Democrats will join it on this platform well and good it shall be a bargain But Mr Vallandigham's nostrum will not suit the Southern complaint, and in this madness we find better encouragement for Republican success than in the wrangles of our own leaders at the North

The Germans in New York

A letter from New York city to the San Francisco Chronicle contains this paragraph

Some stir is being created in the political circles through discovery of the fact that the German element has been organized throughout the various wards of the city with the view of operating upon the municipal election next fall This unexpected revolt of the Germans is extremely annoying to the magnates of Tammany, who are unprepared to see the scepter pass from their hands What renders the matter worse is that the main leaders of the Germans are all members of the old Know Nothings and thoroughly versed in the craft of politics For nearly ten years a vast majority of offices and trust and profit have been monopolized by Irish Americans, who are a decided minority With the single exception of the Mayor and Bill Tweed who like Delpini, the clown boasts no religion at all, all of our office holders are of the Catholic faith, or else married to ladies of that persuasion This is particularly true with respect to the judiciary, for with the exception of Judges Cardozo and Joachimsen, who are Israelites, the magistracy is composed wholly of the Irish element with a strong religious sentiment Native Americans are rapidly disappearing and in the next generation the German will be the predominant feature in our population and hence this movement on the part of the Know Nothings To counteract this influence a convention of Irish editors has been summoned to meet in this city during the course of the week But as it is proverbial for them to disagree upon all topics of common interest, it is not expected that they will accomplish anything beyond falling into the rear of Tammany whose hours are surely numbered should the Germans persist in maintaining their organization

THE YELLOWSTONE GEYSERS—The Boise Statesman makes these sensible observations

A great fault of our western literature is its gross exaggeration, and its vulgar straining for effect Simple people are astonished (which generally seems to be the purpose of the writer,) but sensible ones are disgusted with this style of old trapper lying The Overland Monthly has an article in the June number reliable enough on the Yellowstone Geysers but it voiced with the Rocky Mountain tendency to a degree rather objectionable We are of opinion that when Mr Walter Trumbull saw that column of water from the Beehive spouting up two feet in diameter to an altitude of 230 feet he must have been under the influence of an element more inspiring than Rocky Mountain water And that other five foot column from the Giantess spouting up two hundred feet and falling in drops and spray and shrouded with golden mist is equally tough Now we like good healthy exaggeration—it indicates the poetical temperament and lends a charm often to a dull practical subject but this is a little too clumsily done We go it to Walter that he knock off a hund d feet or so and call the balance steam

MAGNITUDE OF LONDON—The population of London is now 3 250 000 No other city in the world has had so vast a population Babylon was fifteen miles square but never had three millions of people and Rome in her greatness never had half so many as the present inhabitants of London The growth of London has been wonderful In 1660 the time of the great plague, the population was about 400 000 In 1801 it was only 9 8 000 forty years after, it was 1 918 000 and within the past thirty years it has increased to three millions and a quarter At the same rate of increase the people of London will number 5,000,000 at the end of the present century

Mrs Woodhull says "No more babies or at least a poor article—this or the ballot"

OREGON

According to the Yreka Journal emigrants are going in great numbers into the Klamath Lake country with stock, and many are settling permanently A schooner has just been built and is used for travel across the Lake

Eli Carter, Real Estate Agent at Albany has got out a handsome sheet called the Real Estate Special, which is well filled with information regarding lands, resources, and business chances in the upper part of the Wallamet Valley The paper will appear monthly

The 'litigant organ' of Polk county has not a single legal advertisement in its columns which indicates either that the people of Polk county are not litigious, or that they are deterred from seeking redress for wrongs by the swindling costliness of litigant advertising

F R Hill of Wilbur Douglas county offers through the Farmer a premium of ten dollars to the youth, under 20 years of age whose habits have been never to allow the sun to find him either asleep or in bed for the last twelve months and does not allow himself to loiter away much time around the stores or groceries The questions to be asked by a committee chosen by the President of the Agricultural Society at least three competitors to contest for the premium Mr Hill is in little danger of parting with his money

We have received a note from a person at Roseburg, dated Saturday evening which indicates that the difficulty between the editors of the two papers at that place began on that day This account states that Mr Thompson of the Plaindealer met one of the Gale brothers on Saturday evening and attempted to beat him but did not accomplish his purpose The bloody encounter in which the two brothers and Thompson were concerned took place according to the telegraph report, on the following morning when the parties would appear to have met again expressly prepared for a more serious affray The meagerness of the note before us as to facts and causes of the affray, is such, that we make no comments

THE TERRITORIES

The marvellously rich Emma mine in Utah is in the grasp of the law. There is supposed to be wealth enough in it for all the litigants and lawyers concerned

The Salt Lake papers of June 2d say that on the preceding day Brigham Young's 70th birthday was celebrated The anniversary of his wedding day comes about twice a week

The Port Townsend Argus, hearing the report that the Emperor William of Germany has decided the San Juan question in our favor exclaims 'Bully for you, Bill!'

The W T Penitentiary to be built on McNeil's Island near Steilacoom will be 180 feet long, with an average width of 50 feet Work will begin on the building at once

The new Governor of Idaho (he has been changed so often that we forget whether his name is Curtis Bowen, Barnes Jones Smith or Thompson) is expected to be within the Territory in a few days

The Helena (Montana) Gazette speaks of a desperate fight at that place recently between Wm B Holland and John Morrow A knife and pistol were used and both men terribly hurt and in a critical condition

Coal is obtained in great abundance near Evanston on the Pacific Railroad Of this coal 16 325 tons was shipped to California and Nevada during the last half of 1870 and 16 426 tons in the first two months of 1871 It sells in San Francisco for from $13 to $14 a ton of 2 240 pounds It is used very generally on the Central Pacific Railroad

From the Olympia Transcript 'The ship Jas R Keeler, 1 450 tons, having a cargo of 1 000 000 feet of lumber, left Port Gamble last week for Callao In sailing down the straits on Sunday morning she struck the rocks at Point Partridge, and stove a hole in her bottom She was towed back to Port Gamble by the Cyrus in a leaky condition, having thirteen feet of water in her hold She is now being unloaded for the purpose of effecting repairs' We may add here that it is a fact that more accidents happen in the Straits of Fuca than in the Columbia river notwithstanding it is said the Columbia is dangerous

CURRENT NOTES

The Sacramento (Cal) Union says there is not the smallest possibility of the election of the ticket nominated by the Democrats in Sacramento county It is notoriously in the interest of the railroad ring—is poor timber at that

Up to May 20th, 1871, the total amount of money received by the German Central Committee No 12, Under den Linden, from all countries, for the relief of German soldiers and their families was $2 954 926 Of this the people of the United States contributed over $750 000 in gold, up to April 12th

Grand Master Anthon, F and A M of New York, announces his refusal to hold Masonic intercourse with the Masons of France as long as they continue to hold certain errors now entertained by them He has therefore recalled the representative of the Grand Lodge of his jurisdiction who had been sent to France

Mrs Fair may stand aside An Arkansas woman named Emily Sarah Lord is reported to have had nine husbands in ten years Two died with suspicious suddenness and three were divorced What has become of the rest is not stated An exchange says she is misnamed for evidently she is an Emma Sarah of Satan

The Governor and Controller of the State of Illinois having several weeks ago taken steps which will cause the remaining land and town lot property belonging to the Central Railway Company to be taxed that company will advertise all such of its property for sale at public auction at an early day This will increase the taxable property of Illinois by not less than ten million dollars, for as soon as the lands (now idle) of this company are sold to private owners they will be improved and in a few years reach ten times their present actual cash value

POLITICAL NOTES

The Cincinnati Times thinks Vallandigham, in his late Dayton coup de politique displayed infernal cunning It is nothing uncommon for Satan to have a hand in political movements The infernal origin is only too frequently apparent

Says the Louisville Ledger (Dem) 'If a new departure from the Democracy was necessary in Ohio Vallandigham is the man, above all others, who should not lead it He is as vulnerable as a new departure leader as Ben Butler is as a Radical leader'

I have been punished and experienced the worst which could be imposed In the cant language of the day—punishment is 'played out' The worst that can be done has been done, and I have no more to fear —Jefferson Davis at Augusta Ga May 25 1871

The New York World has a trick for accepting the situation, for election purposes, that is worth two of Vallandigham's contrivance It is to accept the Constitutional amendments subject to a judicial decision This is an adoption of the Douglas trick that was the means of splitting the Democratic party.

EXCURSION TO SOUTHERN OREGON

II

From the divide between the Wallamet and the Umpqua rivers the declivity is almost imperceptible in either direction But in going southward the traveler is soon ushered into a pass which soon assumes the peculiar features of a canyon Through this pass the road is execrable It is a quagmire—a mortar bed with the bottom plank pulled out—an Irish bog with no chance for Irish humor Running sometimes on the lowest ground, drainage is impracticable, sometimes on the slope drainage is left to itself Rails were plenty but commonly too short or not long enough and the rest shoved out of place Some lay about a fathomless mud hole, like spokes of a huge car wheel waiting for the hub to come up I noticed that the driver was a man of taste—he disliked to disturb the harmony of such arrangements by driving through them He waxed eloquent in addressing his horses and as eloquent men use expletives so did he, adding pungency to them by many a telling gesture In the coach vulgarly called a mud wagon passengers waxed eloquent also Some related with groanings their experience—not particularly religious though the case did admit of experimental piety Sometimes the horses stood 'shivering on the brink of a cross section of the bottomless bog quartering of course, so as to illustrate the four angles of a square, going in with a lurch under the gentle persuasions of the driver which sent the rear passengers into the arms of the front ones scraping top and sides as they go until a violent reaction returns the compliment from front to rear There is some inconvenience usually attending such involuntary embraces But variety is the spice of life and so from cone we go to corduroy, which would give us a regular churning if the rails were all in place But some are floated off, and some are taken off to pry out foundered wagons My experience is scrutatum, said a man who was seeking consolation in a bottle of red eye or some other flavoring extract

Pass creek canyon is not deep but its novelty is attractive being the first on this route going southward It just now assumes an unusual interest in connection with the railroad as its passage through the canyon will determine its direction through the remainder of the State Some affirm this while others suppose that the road may still turn eastward from Eugene City

Just here is a very suggestive sight Half hidden in the foliage on a grassy level near the babbling brook, are pitched the tents of the pioneers of General Holladay's army of progress But their arms stack of honors, not war The engineer's shout parade of steam whistle, reminded us that a limping snail peace—this example of Oregon left handedness—should quickly give place to modern civilization The State shut up a comparatively good road over the hills and gave the only transit through the interior of Western Oregon to a monopoly which levies toll for the privilege of passing through this continuous bog

Emerging from the canyon the scene widens, and the going improves But there are stretches on all these roads which are nearly as bad as Pass creek canyon A vigorous administration of law is needed to mend the ways of the State British Columbia and California have built many miles of splendid road by the labor of convicts That State prospers which finds profitable employment for all classes Let the convicts who are languishing in prison for want of exercise, be turned out on the highways, and earn their rations If the labor disagrees with them it only shows that they should have learned to work and not to steal If the exposure to the public gaze mortifies them it is well it puts another restraint on crime, But doubtless many convicts would take to the task for the sake of change of air and scene

This State has inexhaustible resources which are unemployed She needs roads to convey operator to these, or to transport them to the operators The want of good highways is a fetter which chains her feet to the banks of her rivers, or sticks them fast in the mud holes of forest, or fatness of prairie

The high price of labor is without a parallel in the world The State needs more operatives to increase production that when the price of labor falls, as it must inevitably, the price of commodities may fall with it, and even below it as it commonly does and thus prevent hardships to those who are the real producers of wealth In the prisons is cheap labor It can be had for board and lodging And if skillfully employed on the roads it would be far more valuable than the highest priced labor on the coast

It is a maxim of political economy that every thing should be utilized Convict labor should be utilized, for the good of the criminal and the benefit of the public

The State orders her voters to work on the roads and if they tended the roads as assiduously as they tend the polls we should have splendid highways But the freeborn rights of Oregonians run to politics as the Wallamet runs down hill Road making is uphill work.

Crossing Pass Creek, we soon reached the incline of another stream, along the valley of which it is reported the railroad must run This is Elk Creek a tributary of the Umpqua, which pursues a wild and mountainous course

This region embracing Pass Creek and some miles north and south of it is almost in a state of nature The improvements are few and inexpensive the inhabitants primitive in habits free and slightly original The sparkling torrent plunges into a deep basin Hide your hook with a worm caught under that stone and drop it quietly into the basin Now if you don t haul up a delicious trout, it is because you are a bungler Venison and other game is abundant The beef tastes queer 'Is this bar meat' inquires one of the company 'Well, it is I took him out of his skin two nights ago, and a bigger one I shot before that He came unpleasantly close A piece of well-cooked meat of such extraction, is quite palatable, after a hard ride What's in a name

The mineral resources of this region are undeveloped and but partially explored A few miners including some Chinese, meet sufficient encouragement to keep them on the track

Although there are now sold annually in New York 550,000 bushels of peanuts, previous to 1860 the total produce of the United States did not amount to more than 150 000 bushels, and of this total fully five sixths were from North Carolina. Now North Carolina produces 125 000 bushels; Virginia 300 000 bushels Tennessee 50 000 bushel Georgia and South Carolina each 25 000 bushel while from Africa comes about 100 000 bushels a year

The omnibus and street-car companies in New York City have found that a horse weighing 1 000 or 1 100 pounds is the most serviceable and that the best food for him is 15 pounds of hay and 15 pounds of corn per day, and two or three pounds of salt in a month The hay is cut and moistened and the meal is mixed with it Twenty miles travel a day is expected of him

WEDNESDAY MORNING JUNE 14 1871

The Revival of Rebellion

A correspondent of the New York Herald telegraphs from Atlanta (Ga) that Jeff Davis is "making a tour of the Southern States and speaking to excited crowds at every important place The South is awakening under this inspiration and the tempest is brewing"

The speech at Atlanta is reported very fully by the Herald's correspondent and by the Son [illegible] The declarations of Jeff. Davis and the fact that he is making them on a sort of triumphal tour through the South are really among the most notable and ominous political circumstances of the time Davis proclaims anew his devotion to the "lost cause," and his remarks are received with admiration and enthusiasm by vociferous multitudes Let those who say that all danger of secession and renewed disturbance is past read the following from the Atlanta speech

I am not of those who "accept the situation" [illegible] nothing These cant phrases that we [illegible] much of about "accepting the situation" and about rights having been submitted to the arbitrament of the sword" are but the excuses [illegible] [Applause] I admit that power prevails over truth, I admit that that power is great that it would be folly to resist it, and [illegible] I am in favor, myself, of being acquiescent and I advise you to the same course but I do admit that our rights have ever been submitted to the arbitrament of the sword Who has the power to submit your liberties to the arbitrament of battle? You never delegated that power to your representatives I, as your Executive never claimed it, and never, dying or living will I admit it [Applause] And then, my friends about this much talked of subject of accepting the situation" You are not called upon to acknowledge that you have done wrong unless you feel it. I don't believe I did any wrong and therefore I don't acknowledge it

This is the sentiment, this is the spirit and [illegible] which a Democratic triumph next year would enthrone at the National Capital and make dominant throughout the country [illegible] a Democratic victory in 1872 would virtually be a revival of the rebellion It is an alarming fact when the leader of the rebellion utters such sentiments as the above and is greeted by admiring crowds who respond to his most extreme views and raise not a [illegible] of dissent It is plain that the issues of the war are not dead, and that the contest of 1872 will be fought upon them. The only safety to the country is to keep the party that sympathizes with such utterances and such purposes in political subjection

The Ultimate Object Kept in the Background

The division of counsel prevailing in the Democratic party relative to its utterances on the questions of the day grows more and more apparent. The Ohio Democrats profess moderation, but really say to the rabids, help us to gain power, and you shall have your views represented." But the South more outspoken and less discreet, insists on the right to fight and oppose the measures that have necessarily grown out of the rebellion [illegible] inaugurated No consideration, [illegible] even the hope of party success, will prevail upon them to yield submission to the constitutional amendments that give freedom, citizenship and suffrage to the colored race As to what the party may attempt to do when it attains power at the Mobile Register speaks which says

If for instance, the policy shall be so shaped as to attack the [illegible] amendments on the ground of their centralizing tendency with regard to Government powers, we are content to fight the battle of that issue and abide the time which must at length set all things even But although we leave [illegible] ultimate object in the background for a season it [illegible] never heless be kept duly alive, so that at the proper moment it may be brought promptly forward to assume the leading position in the matters for final adjustment before the bar of right and justice that its immeasurable importance demands

We might fill columns with similar extracts to show in what manner the Democracy accept the results of the war, but the above is sufficient to indicate the tone and spirit of the press at the South, and ought to convince the Northern wing of that organization that all attempts to ignore the questions of the war in no campaign of 1872 are futile In view of this it is amusing to notice the efforts of men like Vallandigham to impress the people that the lion like Democracy are really gentle and inoffensive lambs This won t do The South has always been an element of weakness to the Democracy, and it will continue to be, so that while the Northern wing of the party sings in dulcet strains of harmony and peace, the Southern wing very unwisely talks of war and proscription It is an old pharmaceutical fact that oil and water will not mix

Georgia Ku Klux—Democratic Testimony

In the person of D. C. Sutton, Prosecuting Attorney of Walker county, a Democratic witness gives evidence of lawlessness in that State For speaking well of President Grant, Thomas M Coulter, a Republican and an estimable citizen, was murdered by Marcus A Ellison desperado, who has been once tried for the murder of a negro, but acquitted through the sympathy of the jury In his [illegible] asking for the removal of Ellison to a more secure place of confinement the than jail of Walker county, Mr Sutton declares that he would not willingly or wantonly furnish the Governor [illegible] with which to stab his party

"The murderer," he says "was of my party, the murdered of yours." "It was a political quarrel The evidence," continues Mr Sutton has a tendency to show that the man is a Ku Klux and it is the general opinion of all who witnessed the dogged indifference to his fate manifested by him on the committing trial and while under arrest, that he is connected with some band of organized outlaws that he feels will come to his relief

In refusing to grant the request, Gov Bullock reminds the Prosecuting Attorney that the Sheriff has power to summon all good and lawful men of the county to aid in enforcing the laws and adds that he cannot think so ill of the people of Walker county, [illegible] of the Democratic party, as to suppose [illegible] would assist a murderer to escape, or refuse to obey the summons of the Sheriff if [illegible] to oppose a band of outlaws attempting to liberate their comrade The anxiety [illegible] Prosecuting Attorney is it is alleged [illegible] prompted in this instance, by a wish to [illegible] the laws executed, but a desire for revenge. The murdered man was his relative [illegible] marriage. Gov Bullock's method of [illegible] the arguments of the Democracy against themselves will not be relished either by Mr Sutton or his party.

There is dissension in the Democratic camp in Ohio. The Butler County Democrat, formerly Vallandigham's special organ repudiates the new platform, saying "These new Departure Democrats are sorely in need of straight jackets, they are surely demented—gone crazy. Their 'new departure' has carried them into such deep water that they will all drown, and no one will care much if the waves of oblivion will roll over them forever and forever Why should these 'new departure men now throw a bombshell to distract the party? This last piece of folly will lose us ten Democrats to where it will gain us one Republican"

On the route of the Texas and Pacific Railroad, says a traveler, is a pleasant site for a cemetery—Staked Plain—seventy miles wide without a sphere of grass or drop of water and covered by the mummy like carcasses of all the creatures that ever perished upon it Even the coyote and raven shun the fatal region The writer's party passed over it with a vast drove of cattle, and when they came within sight of the Pecos river, the herd maddened with thirst, rushed into the pools of crystal alkali, and drank until they fell dead in their tracks or else plunged headlong into the dismal blood red river, and were swept down by hundreds in its swift and treacherous whirl. When we left the Pecos at least twelve hundred head from our drove alone lay dead upon its loathsome banks or fed their festering flesh to its waves

The Herald vigorously assails Mr Hallock as the servant and factotum of the Water Company. We may infer that, if he were now a candidate it would do its utmost to defeat him Mr Cree is to be a candidate again, and he is Mr Hallock's echo Will the Herald advocate his election? It cannot consistently do so

Fisk jr. enjoys an unlimited and recherche supply of the most elegant female acquaintances, while Woodhull illustrates the amiability of a highly progressive mind by living happily for years in the same household with two husbands from both of whom she has been divorced,—one of whom, Dr Woodhull, has the honor of giving her his name, while the other, Mr. Blood, enjoys honors even more substantial

A Montreal young man has written to the papers that he thinks it should be provided that an action for breach of promise of marriage should not lie unless the betrothal had been formally acknowledged by the passing of a gift between the parties in the presence of two or more witnesses

During a late performance of "The Lady of Lyons" at the Mormon theater in Salt Lake city, an old elder got up and indignantly walked out of the house with his twenty four wives, muttering, "I won't stay and see a play where a man makes such an awful fool of himself about one woman!"

The New Orleans Times says "Some inquisitive fellow, who thinks Horace Greely knows everything, asked him how to stop the crevasse, Dam it, sir, don't ask me,' was the characteristic, not to say appropriate reply"

Let Common Sense Decide.

What is the rational procedure in cases of general debility and nervous prostration Does not reason tell us that judicious stimulation is required? To resort to violent purgation in such a case is as absurd as it would be to bleed a starving man Yet it is done every day Yes, this stupid and unphilosophical practice is continued in the teeth of the great fact that physical weakness with all the nervous disturbances that accompany it is more certainly and rapidly relieved by Hostetter s Stomach Bitters than by any other medicine at present known It is true that general debility is often attended with torpidity or irregularity of the bowels, and that this symptom must not be overlooked But while the discharge of the waste matter of the system is expedited or regulated its vigor must be recruited The Bitters do both They combine aperient and antibilious properties with extraordinary tonic power Even while removing obstructions from the bowels they tone and invigorate those organs Through the stomach … which the great vegetable specific acts directly it gives a healthy and permanent impetus to every … Digestion … facilitated the … circulation … the blood reinforced … of the … principles … and all the dormant powers of the system roused into healthy action not spasmodically as would be the case if a mere stimulus were administered but for continuance It is in this way that such extraordinary changes are wrought in the condition of the feeble emaciated and nervous invalids by the use of this wonderful corrective alterative and tonic Let common sense decide between such a preparation and a prostrating cathartic supplemented by poisonous astringent like strychnine or quinia

June and October.

[illegible] with bright sunny eyes,
[illegible] forever wreathing in smiles,
[illegible] as midsummer skies,
[illegible] and artless in wiles,
[illegible] my heart like a new merry tune:
[illegible] beautiful June!

[illegible] deep as truth
[illegible] power,
[illegible] written over with triumphs of youth;
[illegible] dower;
[illegible] merry or sober,
[illegible] grand, royal October!

"WANTED—A MISSIONARY."

[illegible] IN THE BAPTIST CONVENTION AT [illegible] REBELS SPEAK THEIR MINDS [illegible] IN MEETING AND MAKE A SEN[illegible]

[From the Chicago Post.]

One of the most [illegible]omical and curious phenomena of this phenomenal time was the Saturday afternoon session of the Baptist anniversaries, now congregated here with [illegible]. Being seized with a spasm of crazy [illegible] the committee invited all the old rebel Baptists in town to come and allow themselves to be embraced. They came with hearts in their mouths and hats in their hands, and were met at the door by the gushing Fulton, the distinguished gentleman who shied an epithet at Dickens' wineglass, and denied having guzzled lager beer with Tilton. Fulton is nothing if not a "zealot." He is an admirable example to the young—for it is generally safe for them to take the side opposite to that which he espouses. Fulton welcomed the Southern delegates with genuflexion and effusion. They hugged him formally and passed calmly to their seats. They were not going to lose their dignity at so slight an occasion.

The next thing that anybody knew was that these invaders took possession of the meeting. Rev. Mr. [illegible] of Kentucky said he was an ex-rebel, that he loved the negroes "in a certain way," that he was "a good nigger preacher," and he felt that the colored brethren would thank him when he got to Heaven.

Rev. Dr. B[illegible] of Virginia remarked that he was a "Confederate," and wasn't ashamed of it. Then he wept profusely, and declared [illegible] his sobs that he had never treated any man otherwise than as a gentleman and a br— boo-hoo!—rother. After recovering himself, with a tremendous effort at self command, he said he didn't believe slavery was a sin per se. Slavery was a pretty good thing for the negroes. [Great tumult.] The slaveholders were [illegible] such unprincipled people as they had been represented. Thousands of them were Baptists. [Sensation.] He didn't believe in social equality [illegible] there was as much of it in Virginia as in Chicago. [At this point there was lively confusion and several caustic interruptions. Good feeling was [illegible] by the energetic declaration of the speaker. "But we do not tolerate heresy! You can't find a Unitarian or Universalist in our whole region!" Tumultuous applause.]

But this was not the worst of it. "Rev." Mr. Tickner, of Memphis, declared that the negro was "never so happy as when he was in chains in the South," and that it was perilous to undertake to educate such "stupid, [illegible] savages" as they had been.

"He thought that many of the plans proposed by the society were dangerous. They proposed to enlighten the negro. He thought enlightenment of [illegible] desirable; but he would not place so dangerous a weapon as knowledge in the hands of uncivilized men." Then there was turbulence again; and the Northern clergy shouted "Put him out! put him out!" There was immense excitement and [illegible] at this development of Jesuitical [illegible] and heathenism among the preachers of the Word who practised immersion. None of the [illegible] brethren seem to have [illegible] to the overwhelming response which the occasion called for, but they did the next best thing; they put forward two colored men to speak for themselves. This [illegible] the more dramatic and very pictur[illegible]

Mr. Grimes, of B[illegible], replied to the Virginian [illegible], saying among other [illegible]

"For over [illegible] year the blood of the two races had [illegible] in his veins without [illegible] They talked of making a D.D. of him. He would not know on which race the [illegible] would be conferred. He was a Virginian by birth—of the first [illegible] and tremendous [illegible]

The convention by this time indulged in wild [illegible] and the tendency was not [illegible] Rev. Mr. De Baptiste, [illegible] city, was called up, and said [illegible] things: "If Jesus regarded the negro with the same prejudice as [illegible], he would be no saviour for me!" On the [illegible] Mr. Fulton's hornet's nest was finally subdued, it left several [illegible] to speak of. Some of the more thoughtful of the members saw, all at [illegible] the profession of a creed was a [illegible] in the face of an unrighteous life, and that the best thing the Baptist Church can do is to send missionaries to the [illegible] its own pulpit.

The Rochester Express says: "Poor 'dead [illegible]' is not buried yet. Here for six or [illegible] years they have been waiting for a decent [illegible], and the Democratic party has [illegible] it, but we learn for the hundredth time that they are to be, not that they are [illegible]. But this programme does not suit the rest of the party. The Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments do not suit the Democrats, and in several States they have repudiated [illegible] by resolution. The 'new departure,' the Democratic party had better observe is to depart from iniquity."

PURIFY THE BLOOD

In these months.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA

Cures all eruptions of the skin.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA

Cures the worst form of blood diseases.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA

Enters heavily into the circulation of the blood.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA

Beautifies the complexion.

All powders and outward applications destroy the skin, rendering it harsh and coarse. Look at the skin of old maids and those who have used such any length of time. My advice is to discontinue that and use

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.

One bottle is equal in strength to one gallon of the syrups or decoctions as usually made, and a wine glass added to a pint of water equals the celebrated Lisbon Diet Drink. Try it this way.

A delightful beverage.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,

A pleasant, safe and agreeable cathartic.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,

Used in all affections where a purgative medicine is needed.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,

Harmless to a child, and taken by children.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS

Supersede magnesia, salts and every other purgative.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,

Certain in effect and pleasant in operation.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILL

Is not a patented pill.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS

Are composed of Catawba grape juice and fluid extract rhubarb.

How to proceed in the spring and summer months to insure new life, new blood, new vigor: Purchase two bottles of

HELMBOLD'S SARSAPARILLA,

and one box of

PILLS—worth their WEIGHT IN GOLD.

No better investment can be made for so small a sum.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

HAS ACQUIRED A WORLD-WIDE FAME.

All of my preparations are meritorious. A period of twenty years has PROVED THIS to be the case.

See remarks made by Benjamin Travers, F. R. C. S. Speaking of those diseases, and [illegible] arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

WM. R. WARNER & CO.,
154 North 3d st., Philadelphia, Pa.

H. T. HELMBOLD—ESTEEMED FRIEND: We congratulate you on having the handsomest, and at the same time the MOST EFFECTIVE PILL that we have ever known for the purposes intended.

WM. R. WARNER & CO.

H. T. HELMBOLD will remark in conclusion, that his remedies are the result of long and careful study. The Fluid Extracts have been before the public twenty years; the sale of them in that time proves their value. All have been benefitted by them who followed my instructions, and to-day they stand UNEQUALLED in the extent of their sale and UNSURPASSED by any Medicament in the Dispensatory of the United States, not excepting a single HERB, ROOT, PLANT, or scientific preparation.

Pharmaceutical I claim all mine to be, and have never patented a single one.

To dispel any impression or prejudice that might exist in the minds of many against my Preparations from the publicity given, through advertising, and that I am and have been a druggist for a period of 21 years, and more conclusively to prove this, see letter:

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the world.]

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.

I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

ALL STAND ON THEIR MERITS.

The Pill I have thought of offering to the afflicted for ten years.

They are now perfect, and I shall stake my time, money, and fame on their effectiveness. The inviting style in which the Pill itself is made, the bottle, label, wrapper—all show with what care they have been prepared. After examination, no English or French preparation will show greater care, and I am really proud of them.

Instead of the nauseous-looking, carelessly-prepared Pills vended generally and put up in wooden boxes, and made generally or offered by those having no experience as physicians, druggists, or manufacturers of medicines, test the medicines offered by your obedient servant.

June and October.

Beautiful maid with bright sunny eyes,
  Sweet budding lips ever wreathing in smiles,
Brow as unclouded as midsummer skies,
  Gentle in anger and artless in wiles,
You've stolen my heart like a new merry tune:
Let me adore you, beautiful June!

Noble, brave woman with eyes deep as truth,
  Lips that reveal the full ripeness of power,
Brow written over with triumphs of youth;
  High-strung to honor, soul-rich in dower;
Precious thy life-song, be it merry or sober,
I utterly love thee, grand, royal October!

"WANTED—A MISSIONARY."

A HIGH SCENE IN THE BAPTIST CONVENTION AT CHICAGO—EX-REBELS SPEAK THEIR MINDS RIGHT OUT IN MEETING AND MAKE A SENSATION.

[From the Chicago Post.]

One of the most comical and curious phenomena of this phenomenal time was the Saturday afternoon session of the Baptist anniversaries, now congregated here with 2,000 delegates. Being seized with a spasm of crazy courtesy, the committee invited all the old rebel chaplains in town to come and allow themselves to be embraced. They came with hearts in their mouths and hats in their hands, and were met at the door by the gushing Fulton—the distinguished gentleman who shied an epithet at Dickens' wineglass, and denied having guzzled lager beer with Tilton. Fulton is nothing if not a zealot. He is an admirable example to the young—for it is generally safe for them to take the side opposite to that which he espouses. Fulton welcomed the Southern delegates with genuflexion and effusion. They hugged him formally and passed calmly to their seats. They were not going to lose their dignity at so slight an occasion.

The next thing that anybody knew was that these invaders took possession of the meeting. Rev. Mr. Chaplain of Kentucky said he was an ex-rebel, that he loved the negroes "in a certain way," that he was "a good nigger preacher," and he felt that the colored brethren would thank him when he got to Heaven.

Rev. Dr. Burroughs of Virginia remarked that he was a "Confederate," and wasn't ashamed of it. Then he wept profusely, and declared between his sobs that he had never treated any man otherwise than as a gentleman and a br—boo-hoo!—rother. After recovering himself, with a tremendous effort at self-command, he said he didn't believe slavery was a sin per se. Slavery was a pretty good thing for the negroes. [Great tumult.] The slaveholders were not such unprincipled people as they had been represented. Thousands of them were Baptists. [Sensation.] He didn't believe in social equality, but there was as much of it in Virginia as in Chicago. [At this point there was lively confusion and several caustic interruptions.] Good feeling was restored by the energetic declaration of the speaker: "But we've rooted out heresy! You can't find a Unitarian or Universalist in the whole region!" [Tumultuous applause.]

But this was not the worst of it. "Rev." Mr. Ticknor, of Memphis, declared that the negro was "never so happy as when he was in chains in the South," and that it was ridiculous to undertake to educate such "stupid, useless savages" as they had been.

He thought that many of the plans proposed by the society were dangerous. They [illegible] to enlighten the negro. He thought [illegible]ament of Christians desirable; but he would not place so dangerous a weapon as knowledge in the hands of unchristian men."

[illegible] there was turbulence again; and the [illegible] clergy shouted, "Put him out! put him out!" There was immense excitement and [illegible] at this development of Jesuitical ignorance and heathenism among the preachers of the Word who practised immersion. Some of the pale-faced brethren seem to have been equal to the overwhelming response that the occasion called for, but they did [illegible] thing; they put forward two [illegible] to speak for themselves. This made the scene dramatic and very picturesque.

Mr. [illegible], of Boston, replied to the Virginian [illegible] effectually, saying among other things:

"For [illegible] fifty years the blood of the two races had been running in his veins without [illegible] [Wild applause.] They talked of making a D. D. of him. He would not know in which race the honor would be conferred. He was a Virginian by birth—of the first families. [Wild applause and tremendous laughter.]

The [illegible] by this time indulged in [illegible] ad libitum, and the tendency was [illegible] had when Rev. Mr. De Baptiste, colored, of this city, was called up, and said among other things: "If Jesus regarded the negro with the same prejudice as these men, he would be no Saviour for me!"

On the whole, although Mr. Fulton's hor[illegible] was finally subdued, it left several stings and no honey to speak of. Some of the more thoughtful of the members saw, all at once that the profession of a creed was a hollow mockery in the face of an unrighteous life, and that the best thing the Baptist Church can do is to send missionaries to the pagans in its own pulpit.

The Rochester Express says: "Poor 'dead issues' are not buried yet. Here for six or eight years they have been waiting for a decent interment, and the Democratic party has promised it, but we learn for the hundredth time that they are to be, not that they are buried. But this programme does not suit the rest of the party. The Fourteenth and Fifteenth amendments do not suit the Democrats, and in several States they have repudiated them by resolution. The 'new departure' of the Democratic party had better observe [illegible] depart from iniquity.'"

PURIFY THE BLOOD

In these months.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
Cures all eruptions of the skin.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
Cures the worst form of blood diseases.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
Enters heavily into the circulation of the blood.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
Beautifies the complexion.

All powders and outward applications destroy the skin, rendering it harsh and coarse. Look at the skin of old maids and those who have used such any length of time. My advice is to discontinue that and use

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.

One bottle is equal in strength to one gallon of the syrups or decoctions as usually made, and a wine glass added to a pint of water equals the celebrated Lisbon Diet Drink. Try it this way.

A delightful beverage.

HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,
HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS.
A pleasant, safe and agreeable cathartic.
HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,
Used in all affections where a purgative medicine is needed.
HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,
Harmless to a child, and taken by children.
HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS
Supersede magnesia, salts and every other purgative.
HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS,
Certain in effect and pleasant in operation.
HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILL
Is not a patented pill.
HELMBOLD'S CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS
Are composed of Catawba grape juice and fluid extract rhubarb.

How to proceed in the spring and summer months to insure new life, new blood, new vigor: Purchase two bottles of

HELMBOLD'S SARSAPARILLA,

and one box of

PILLS—worth their WEIGHT IN GOLD.

No better investment can be made for so small a sum.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU
HAS ACQUIRED A WORLD-WIDE FAME.

All of my preparations are meritorious. A period of twenty years has PROVED THIS to be the case.

See remarks made by Benjamin Travers, F. R. C. S. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

See REMARKS of the GREAT CHEMISTS AND PILL MEN OF AMERICA,

WM. R. WARNER & CO.,
154 North 3d st., Philadelphia, Pa.

H. T. HELMBOLD—ESTEEMED FRIEND: We congratulate you on having the handsomest, and at the same time the MOST EFFECTIVE PILL that we have ever known for the purposes intended.

WM. R. WARNER & CO.

H. T. HELMBOLD will remark in conclusion, that his remedies are the result of long and careful study. The Fluid Extracts have been before the public twenty years; the sale of them in that time proves their value. All have been benefitted by them who followed my instructions, and to-day they stand UNEQUALLED in the extent of their sale and UNSURPASSED by any Medicament in the Dispensatory of the United States, not excepting a single HERB, ROOT, PLANT, or scientific preparation.

Pharmaceutical I claim all mine to be, and have never patented a single one.

To dispel any impression or prejudice that might exist in the minds of many against my Preparations from the publicity given, through advertising, and that I am and have been a druggist for a period of 23 years, and more conclusively to prove this, see letter:

[From the largest Manufacturing Chemists in the world.]

NOVEMBER 4, 1854.

I am acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WILLIAM WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman, Manufacturing Chemists, 6th and Brown sts., Philadelphia.

ALL STAND ON THEIR MERITS.

The Pill I have thought of offering to the afflicted for ten years.

They are now perfect, and I shall stake my time, money, and fame on their effectiveness. The inviting style in which the Pill itself is made, the bottle, label, wrapper—all show with what care they have been prepared. After examination, no English or French preparation will show greater care, and I am really proud of them.

Instead of the nauseous-looking, carelessly-prepared Pills vended generally and put up in wooden boxes, and made generally or offered by those having no experience as physicians, druggists or manufacturers of medicines, but the medicines offered by your obedient servant.
